$1,500,000 BLAZE SWEEPS DETROIT WATERFRONT AREA

FIRE STARTS IN FERRY DOCK BUILDING ON RIVER. WAREHOUSE GOES

Old Structures Furnish Tinder for Flames; Three Persons Injured.

DETROIT.—Fire starting from an overheated stove in a watchman's shack early today destroyed the Detroit and Windsor Ferry company dock, housing United States immigration and customs offices, spread to the six story Menger building which was burned to the ground, and then destroyed a four story warehouse and several small buildings on Woodward avenue and Bates street. When the fire broke out at 5 a. m., the loss was estimated at $1,500,000.

The warehouse of the Flinstadtvold Fur and Hide company was consumed by the flames, fanned by a brisk easterly breeze. The fire-swept section, at the foot of Woodward avenue, was one of the oldest in the city, and some of the buildings burned had been standing 50 years. They were as tinder before the flames.

Three persons were injured, one probably seriously.

Flames Leap East.

Although three fourths of the city's fire fighting equipment reached the scene 20 minutes after the first alarm, pouring 50 streams of water into the flames, the fire continued to press northward.

Three floors of the Menger building were occupied by the Flinstadtvold company, where the finished furs were packed. The flames fed the firemen could conquer them. On another floor of the Menger block was the factory of the Platon-Clark company, dye and varnish makers, and small explosions there hampered the firemen.

The general sales company automobile store rooms were next in the path of the flames which then spread to the Flinstadtvold company's four story warehouse, the offices of the Lake Carriers' association and the Boise Boat company. The Schulte Cigar company store also was destroyed.

Ferry Service Checked.

Ferry service between Detroit and Windsor was interrupted for several hours. At 7:30 o'clock two ferries loaded with passengers coming to work here, were held in mid-stream waiting a place to dock. Later they docked at Griswold street.

One hundred policemen were required to hold back the thousands of spectators attracted to the scene, despite the early hour, by the brilliant light of the flames.

The turkey has joined the other more or less wild life in the governor's private zoo.

"There are enough dead turkeys around here without this one," said Governor Smith. "We're going to keep this fellow."

POLICE FINDS BIG STILL; OWNER IS GIVEN 18 MONTHS

Janesville police discovered the largest piece of moonshine manufacturing equipment ever found in this city late Tuesday afternoon when they raided the home of William Marsch, 525 South Fourth street, and confiscated an eight-gallon still, 50 gallons of mash and two and one-half gallons of liquor. The liquor-out was of such proportions that the police had to hire a dory to carry it all to the station.

Given Still Sentence.

Marsch, employed at the Northwestern roundhouse here, was taken to his home where the police squad arrived and after the discovery of the still, was arrested and taken to headquarters. Arraigned a few moments later in municipal court before Judge H. L. Maxwell, he pleaded guilty to three counts of violation of the prohibition laws and was fined $1,500 or 18 months in jail. He chose to serve the sentence under the commitment law.

The three counts against him, session of liquor, and possession of mash. He was fined $500 or six months on each count.

Had Complete Outfit.

Marsch's apparatus consisted of a copper wash boiler on an oil stove, with a coil running from the boiler into a 50-gallon barrel for condensation. Another 50-gallon barrel full of mash was found, besides several large jugs, some of them containing moonshine.

Five policemen participated in the raid, as follows: Freese, Handy, Ford, O'Leary and Ward.

4 MONTHS' HUNT FOR E. L. CUSTER ENDS IN DETROIT

JANESVILLE SHOE SALESMAN IS UNDER ARREST.

LETTER IS CLEW

Missing from Janesville for four months following his mysterious disappearance on July 10, Eustis L. Custer, 45, of 155 Locust street, a former shoe salesman for D. J. Luby company, has been found in Detroit by detectives of that city, according to word received by Chief Charles Newman, Wednesday.

Immediately upon receipt Wednesday morning of the telegram from Edward Fox, of the detective bureau of Detroit, William Ford, chief of the Janesville police department, left for the Michigan city with a warrant for Custer charging desertion and non-support.

It is understood that Custer will waive extradition and be brought back to Janesville from which he fled four months ago leaving his wife and two children with no means of support.

According to indications given the police department Custer can expect no plea for mercy from his wife as she has said she will not let him get the limit for his crime.

Letter Is Clew

The shoe salesman was last heard from on the morning of July 10 when he called his wife on the telephone from downtown and advised her he was going to Milwaukee and would return the following day. He was later seen walking on the Jackson road. Several clues to his whereabouts were run down by authorities, one coming from Milwaukee.

A letter mailed from Detroit is said by police to have led to his apprehension.

His wife is working in Janesville, having two children John, 19, and Joseph, 16.

TWO POLICEMEN FACE DISMISSAL FROM DEPARTMENT

Two members of the Janesville police department, Patrolmen William Saxby and Patrick Stein, are standing on thin ice Wednesday, so far as their future service on the force is concerned. From statements Wednesday morning by City Manager Henry Traxler and Chief Charles Newman, it appears certain both will be released, although the matter has not been settled.

Last minute conferences were to be held late Wednesday afternoon with the city manager in the hope of giving the two night policemen another chance, but with no little possibility of Mr. Traxler granting the requests.

Saxby is charged with misconduct. Chief Newman declaring he has information the patrolman was drinking while on duty on the night of Nov. 12. It was just a year ago that Saxby was suspended for 30 days for a similar offense. When he was taken back, it was understood to be his last chance.

Stein Slugging Prisoners.

Cruelty to prisoners is the charge against Stein. Two offenses of this nature are alleged to have occurred within the past 10 days. The first one involved a youth Stein picked up as a suspect in connection with a hotel pecking incident. It is alleged Stein cut the youth's hair with his club and raised a large bump on his lower jaw.

The second occurred Monday night. Stein is taking a man to the police station to sleep after he could not get a room at two hotels. Chief Newman said. On the way up Jackson street, the man seemed to hang back a little and Stein is alleged to have

COOLIDGE MESSAGE BRIEF AND DIRECT

Explicit Recommendations Rather Than Arguments, President's Idea.

Washington.—President Coolidge put the finishing touches on his message to congress today and the document was sent to the printer.

The message is comparatively brief, while House attachés declare it to be shorter than the average length of those sent to congress by President Wilson and Harding.

The president has told visitors that he framed the message with a view to presenting explicit recommendations rather than arguments. His desire, he said, is to impress congress with the soundness of the recommendations, with sufficient force to render arguments unnecessary.

Edward P. Farley, chairman of the shipping board, who has just returned from Europe, had an engagement to talk with the president today regarding the recommendation with respect to merchant marine. Inasmuch as the message is completed the conference will not alter recommendations already made. It was said at the White House that the merchant marine proposals previously had received the approval of Mr. Farley.

Hiram's Manager Master Tactician

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1923, by Janesville Daily Gazette

Washington.—Selection of Frank H. Hitchcock to manage the campaign of Senator Hiram Johnson for the republican nomination for the presidency is the political sensation of the hour.

Mr. Hitchcock is known as the most astute broker in delegates in the recent history of American politics. This more an announcement of his connection with a campaign means notice to other campaign managers that there will be a fight.

And a fight by the Hitchcock tactics is what the delegates will usually see in a series of first choices and some understanding as to the system of the republican and democratic parties from time to time but a system at which Mr. Hitchcock usually has been able to excel.

C. Bascom Slemp, private secretary to President Coolidge, knew the political game from the ground up, and the forthcoming duel between him and Mr. Hitchcock will be worth watching, if indeed it becomes visible to the naked eye.

Mr. Hitchcock has experienced four years of the roughest sorts of experience. He managed the Roosevelt campaign in 1904, and then the Taft campaign in 1908. He stayed out of the 1912 fight but reappeared in 1916. He visited Charles Evans

UNDISTURBED TOMB DATING TO TIME OF CHRIST FOUND

Philadelphia.—An undisturbed tomb, dating from the time of Christ, has been discovered in the Valley of Kedron near Jerusalem, according to word received from Dr. W. F. A. Wright, director of the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem, Dr. James Alan Montgomery, president of the school, announced today.

The tomb contained more than a score of ossuaries, Dr. Albright wrote. "A dozen of these bore the names and genealogies of the occupants, all the dead appearing to be related to one family, which flourished about the time of Christ."

Dr. Albright also reported the finding of a sarcophagus, said to be the first yet uncovered at Palestine.

"The most reliable data proposed is the second century after Christ," the letter said. "The beautiful sarcophagus is distinctly pre-classical and cannot be compared with the Alexandrian sarcophagus, despite its undoubted excellence in workmanship."

Preliminary to undertaking the excavations, Dr. Albright and his party conducted a survey of Palestine. The first visited Khirbet-Zibneh, identified with Timnath-Serah as the home of Josiah.

BROTHERS MAKE FULL CONFESSION IN GOTHAM CRIME

SEVEN MORE ARRESTS IN SLAYING OF TWO MESSENGERS.

HOLDUP IN WEST

Automobile Bandits Stage Spectacular Daylight Robbery in Seattle.

NEW YORK.—Barlow Morris Diamond and his brother Joseph Lave made a complete confession of their part in the robbery and murder of the two west end bank messengers in a Brooklyn elevated station November 14, District Attorney Dodd announced today after seven additional arrests had been made.

The Bronx apartment, where the five were taken, was a bandit rendezvous, and it was there that the men who instigated the Brooklyn robbery and slaying met his aides for conferences, the police said. They would not state whether the plot of the crime was among those now in custody.

Pantano, the police said, has admitted to them that he furnished the information which led to the robbery and slaying.

BANK MESSENGERS ARE HELD UP IN SEATTLE

Seattle.—A daring and apparently well planned holdup of two bank messengers, en route to postoffice substitution, at a street intersection in the heart of Seattle's business district late yesterday, yielded seven bandits $20,000 worth of negotiable bonds. No trace of the robbers, who were heavily armed, had been found early today, although police threw out a dragnet last night, patrolled all highways leading from the city and searched Seattle.

Policeman Mauled

A motor cycle policeman, accompanying the automobile containing the two messengers, who were en route to postoffice substitution, was maulled to the machine. A small automobile blocked the path of the messengers en route to Jackson street and Second avenue, a crowded intersection, and two men leaped from the machine, covered the bank messengers with pistols and snatched two satchels containing the bonds and checks being sent to other banks from the bank car. Two other men, apparently their confederates, stepped out from the sidewalk and handcuffed the motorcycle policeman to his machine.

Machine Stolen, Belief

A fifth man prevented a pedestrian at the curb from giving aid. Two other members of the gang were seen in the back of the machine. When the first pair darted back into their automobile with the satchels, the bandits who were a foot or so away in the excitement, through the crowd, were quickly to other banks from the bank car. Two other men, apparently their confederates, stepped out from the sidewalk and handcuffed the motorcycle policeman to his machine.

The machine used by the bandits is believed by police to have been stolen.

Deny Firing Shots

Both Diamonds denied firing the shots which killed the messengers, from whom $20,000 was stolen, but furnished the names of three gunmen alleged to have done the actual slaying, according to Mr. Dodd, one of the descriptions of the trio had been flashed all over the country.

Mr. Dodd also announced that Anthony Pantano of Brooklyn, one of the bandits, had confessed to his part in the crime.

SHORT COURSE IS COLLEGES SOLVING

OPENED IN CHURCH FARMER PROBLEMS

Farm Subjects Discussed by Rock Prairie Farmers at Meetings.

BY L. E. JACKSON.

Farmers of the Rock Prairie district have started what is termed a "short course" in agriculture. Two meetings have been held so far, the first meeting being held on Nov. 15, at the Rock Prairie church, and the second on Nov. 22, at the Rock Prairie church. The subject of poultry was selected for the next meeting, at which time the farm women will be invited to attend. The work is carried on as a part of the extension program of the agricultural department of the University of Wisconsin.

The organization of the Rock Prairie short course is in the hands of a club of men affiliated with the church. Committees are working with President George Austin for the meeting dates and suggested programs which will be of interest to the farmers.

Have Good Attendance.

About 20 farmers have attended each meeting. The meeting subject is first presented and then discussed, with many farmers joining to present all angles of the subject.

Opportunity to go to night school twice a week and take up subjects which may be of interest to them in their business, have been observing the mechanics class held as a part of the regular night school work at the Janesville high school. They will be presented of value to them. Men from the country are coming to a number of these classes.

I believe the farmers should have the same opportunity to study and take a course for discussion on an interesting subject in much the same manner. Short courses can be easily held in other parts of Rock county much in the same manner as in Rock Prairie, where we can all learn something of benefit to the business of farmers.

Have Home Classes.

Plans are being made for establishing a course for farmers of Rock county on any desired subject at the Janesville high school during the winter and spring months. Notice pictures can be obtained on a variety of farm subjects and agricultural authorities can be obtained to lecture along with the "movies".

TERRANT WINS OUT IN TESTING CATTLE; HAS GREAT HERD

One of the pleasing sights to any lover of good cattle is that seen in the dairy barn of Russell Terrant who lives southeast of Janesville. A herd of 60 Holstein cows is maintained, of which seven are pure bred. Going down the line among all of the black and whites we find one red cow. On asking Terrant why he kept a red cow in a Holstein herd we find that she is one of the old original cows of the herd. In the month of February as a two year old she produced an average of 755 pounds of milk which made 72 pounds of fat. Such a record made in 28 days warrants any cow staying in a herd.

Russell started several years ago in the T. B. testing work. His herd had reached a high average, but he was reminded one day by a cow which he was working and developing all in vain. On the first test 27 testers were taken out of the Terrant herd. On the next test three, and the next one. With a great deal of pride Russell told that his last test was a clean one. Such persistence in chasing out a task which has been started is sure to bring success to the young man who stuck to this job and a great deal of success has already been attained anyone will tell you who stops to look at the herd.

The same progressive spirit which prompted his herd is also shown in his selection of herd sires. Terrant takes just as much pride in keeping a top notch pure bred bull at the head of his grade herd as any pure bred breeder of cattle. The present herd sire is a fine individual and a son of Wonderet Clyde and out of the 33 pound Wehinger cow Johanna Beauty Battles. A good lesson may be learned at his farm. Terrant's work shows that it pays to do the job right.

URGES ADOPTION OF PILGRIM AIMS

Though neglected in the strenuousness of the times, the social inheritance of the Pilgrims have carried the United States on and should be received with gratitude and adopted more generally, said the Rev. J. A. Moore, in a Thanksgiving talk to the Rotary club at luncheon at the Grand hotel, Tuesday.

The people of Plymouth, who wrote the Declaration of Independence, who fought the Revolution, who wrote the constitution and who brought about the separation of church and state, created such a foundation, said the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, that nothing has been done since except that which has merely carried out those declarations.

Should be Accorded Thought

"It is a good thing to remember that the men of the Pilgrim era were of Christian faith and progressive," he said, "with a profound sense of right and a greater one of responsibility. The Pilgrim inheritance should be accorded greater thought than giving all attention to the achieving side of life. He said that the speed of present living made the pleasure too often in such things as gambling and drink because not sufficient attention is paid to the inherent institutions of the community.

These institutions are greater than a narrow patriotism, he asserted, saying that in many cases "100 percent Americanism" is pure bunk. He pointed out that organizations like the Ku Klux Klan are harmful. He said that a plan of the Knights of Columbus to rewrite the history of America "can lead to nothing but harm. He stated that there never was such a time as now in which the American public may be filled with 'bunk'.

Guests Tuesday were Judge George Graham, Jefferson, Meigs, Van Ryn, L. Hughes, Kelley, G. H. DeBellevue, Mrs. L. J. Conant, Milwaukee; Mr. Lipman of Beloit; Jesse Earle and S. H. Bliss, Janesville; and R. L. Rayburn, New York.

"But no opportunity was given me to speak to him. He came up with Clark following close behind, and went directly to your uncle's room just as I stole away to the cozy corner. When he came out my eye was at the slit in my screen. From the way he walked I knew that things had gone wrong with him and later when you came out, I saw that they had. And you were with him. He was high; his head had been held low."

"I like Clark, and perhaps you think because we were sitting there together waiting for orders that I took him into my confidence. But I didn't. I was too full of rage and fear for that. Nobody must know my heart, nobody, at least not during this uncertainty. You were still determined to act, to say or do something if I got the chance. When after going to your uncle's room, he came back and said that Mr. Bartholomew was not yet ready to go to bed—that he wanted to be left alone for a half hour and that I was to see from the place where I was that no one came to disturb him. I felt that the chance I wanted was to be mine, and as soon as Clark went on to his room, I got up and started to go down the hall."

"I am giving a full story, Mr. Queen, for I want you to know it all; so I will omit a little thing of which I ought to be ashamed, but of which I was rather proud at the time. When I had taken a few steps I remembered that half hour was a long time, and that Clark might find it so and be tempted to take a look to see if I was keeping watch as he had bid me. The thought seemed to doubt me, but because he was always over particular in every matter where his master was concerned. So I went back and slipped into my room brought out a skirt like the one I had on and threw it over a chair behind the screen so that a little bit of the hem would show outside. Then I went to your uncle's door and with a slow turn of the knob opened it without a sound and stepped into the passage-way. To my great satisfaction the portiers which separated it from the room itself were down and pulled closely together. I could stand there and not be seen, same as in the cozy corner."

"Hearing nothing, I drew the heavy hangings apart ever so slightly and peered through the slit thus made at his figure sitting close by the fire. He was in his big chair with the wings on either side and placed as it was, only his head was visible. I trembled as I saw him, for he was too near the hearth. What if he should fall forward!"

"But as I stood there hesitating, I saw one of his hands come into view from the side of his chair the side nearest the fire. In it was one of the big envelopes and for an instant I held my breath, for he seemed about ready to take it into the fire. But he soon drew it back again and I heard a moan, then the low cry, 'My boy! my boy! I cannot!' And I knew then what it all meant. 'That there were really two wills and that he was trying to summon up courage to destroy the one which would diminish his favorite nephew. Rebellious against the act and determined to stop it if I could, I slipped into the room and without making any noise, for I had on my felt slippers, I crossed the floor noiseless and nearer till I was almost at his back. His head was bent a little forward, but he gave no sign of being aware of my presence. I could hear the fire crackle and now and then the little moan which left his lips, but nothing else. The house

LATEST MARKET REPORT

GRAIN

Chicago.—With talk current that no more wheat would be shipped to Europe, the market for corn and oats showed firmness today in the early dealings. The market for wheat, however, was more mixed than Tuesday, and there was a general feeling of uncertainty between December delivery and May. For the most part, commission houses and exporters were selling at a profit, and the market was generally steady. The corn market opening, which ranged from 1.10 to 1.12, was followed by a slight general advance and then by a general decline and closed easy.

Wheat dealers as a rule took a waiting attitude, the opening unchanged to 1.10, lower, 1.10 1/2, 1.10 3/4, and May 1.08 1/2 to 1.09 1/2, wheat 1.10 to 1.12, and oats 1.08 to 1.09. The market was generally steady, with a slight general advance and then by a general decline and closed easy.

BAND RING FREES SELF-EXILED GIRL

Young Mother Quits Seclusion With Baby to Assume Rightful Name.

Manicapolis.—Police have solved the mystery of "The Lady in 510" and a wedding in the courthouse on Tuesday made the girl who kept the "gossamer" tongues wagging for more than three years. The facts that the police learned have been substantiated by the Manicapolis Journal, which tells the story in a copyrighted article.

It was more than three years ago she came to a local hotel, accompanied by a man—ostensibly her husband—who carried a crying baby. They stayed for a room "indefinitely" and were given 510.

From that day no one ever saw her outside her room. Guests in adjacent rooms heard a baby prattle and a mother croon but there the month rolled into years, the prattle became a childish voice, and a little boy pressed his nose against the window pane to view the mysterious outdoors.

Meals in Room
Her "husband" traveled, she said, and his stays at the hotel were frequent and brief. The woman ate in her room, and the baby was fed by telephone. Her accounts always were paid promptly.

Then, by chance, detectives heard of "The Lady in 510" and using her legal authority, a policeman entered the room and gradually drew her story.

It was that a woman of 20 years, whose misfortune while a college girl was to have a baby, had decided to leave the hotel room until a wedding band circled her finger.

Story Is Told
In the police chief's office she told her story. Nearly two years ago, she said, she was a college girl, and a curious-eyed boy of 4 clutched at her skirt. Then came the solution.

The man, without a word, but with a look in his eyes, touched the woman's arm; together they went to the wedding license bureau two floors above, and the woman became his legal wife and the little boy gained a name.

Tuesday night the windows in room 510 were dark and gossamer tongues were stilling as a man and his wife came to the hotel. The moon and a boy of 4 learned of street cars and outdoor things.

2,500,000 OUT OF STATE TOURISTS

Visitors in Summer Travel 432,000,000 Miles on Wisconsin Roads.

Madison—Approximately 2,500,000 out of state tourists visit Wisconsin annually and travel 432,000,000 miles while in the state, according to results of the count made by the state highway department during one day a week for seven weeks, made public today.

The summary shows that the average number of persons per car was 3.66, the average day with the state was 10.5 days; the average miles traveled was 118; the average amount expended per car was $126.50, or $17.72 per day, which resulted in an average expenditure of $12.24 per person. Thirty-six percent of the tourists camped at parks or by the roadside, the summary shows, four percent stopped at summer homes, and 60 percent stopped at hotels.

"The county showed that the average number entering the state and leaving during the period for which the count was taken was approximately the same, or 1,027 cars daily, each carrying 3.66 persons. The tabulation shows that the occupants of each car expended $17.72 per day. Multiplying the 7,500,000 car days by $17.72, the amount expended per day, gives us a total expenditure of $133,000,000 for the total tourist season." Considering the number of persons entering the state on highways, it is estimated that the amount left in Wisconsin during the season by out of state people is $100,000,000. Considering the number of persons entering the state of state traffic, it is estimated that $200,000,000 annually is spent by tourists.

NORWAY CAPITAL IS MODERN LUXOR

Proposal to Change Name Draws Attention to Husling City.

Washington.—"A proposal to change the name of Norway's capital from Christiania to Oslo directs attention to one of the most modern of European cities which however, is a sort of Scandinavian Luxor," says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"Christiania is businesslike, clean and new. The antiquary might pass it by as a relic of the past, were he not to visit its historical museum. There two Viking ships carry him back to the ninth century.

"The Vikings built the city. The ships, like the Egyptian pyramids, had a history of a man's property with his bones. The men of the North usually chose a ship as their burial place, and around the hull they would place numerous arms, ornaments and utensils. Nearby, domestic animals sometimes were interred.

"When one notes on a map that Christiania is in the latitude of Hudson Bay and Kamchatka he is apt to jump to a wrong notion of the city's climate. By summer the city is balmy. A call for a ship to the island-studded Christiania fjord is a fitting entry into the city which nestles in an amphitheater of green hills dotted with beautiful suburbs and country estates.

"The deep blues of hills and islands, the warm colors of the houses, and the fruits and flowers of the market place conspire to create an illusion that one is in the Sunny South.

Winter Sports Abound
"In the winter the surrounding hills afford infinite opportunity for skiing and tobogganing, sports which are dear to the Norwegian heart.

"The Norwegian respect for art, music and literature is akin to that of our own New England; and, in winter, the National Theater's Opera season is a grand opportunity for the student of the arts. That is the spirit of the city, which appeals especially to the travelers who arrive in late summer is the August season of Ibsen and Bjornson.

"The man who said that the sewing machine has done more to break down national distinctiveness than any other invention would be proved right in Norway. The city of the sewing machine is that of other cosmopolitan European capitals. A vehicle survives, however, in the Norwegian city. That is the curlicue, a single-passenger affair, mounted on two wheels with extremely long and flexible shafts.

The proposed name, Oslo, is not new. It was the name of the city which stood on one bank of the Akers River, which now flows through Christiania. In Oslo James V. of Scotland married Anne, Denmark. There the famous first plant monopoly, the Hansa League, had a factory. A fire swept the old city in 1624, nearly four centuries after it had been founded. King Christian rebuilt it on the opposite bank of the river and it then acquired its present name. A suburb still bears the name of Oslo, thus the change is comparable to New York's taking the name of Yonkers, or our own capital deciding to name itself Georgetown.

The population of Christiania is nearly 300,000, which is about a tenth of the population of Norway—a fact which has worried Norwegian economists. Recent developments of power, which is water power, have gone far to decentralize the country's industrial activity.

One of the pleasing impressions left upon the visitor by a visit to Christiania is the excellent taste and great courtesy of the people. The former is exemplified by their personal adornment, especially by their jewelry. Norwegian enamel, of lustrous blue, mauve and pink tints, is famous. The second trait is shown by the custom which requires men to remove their hats even when they enter a shop. Food is esteemed highly, especially in the bleak winter months, and while the custom of eating six times a day, which has been attributed to Norwegian farmers, does not prevail in Christiania, a supplemental meal in the evening makes for a gay, care-free life among the Oslo residents.

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Were a Woodworker—I would make toys. Sounds funny, does it? Not a bit of it. I know a man who could make a dozen blocks in a day, and around in his home. One day he discovered a new toy in the smallest quantities, but today his toys are sold in the thousands. He is a good one. I would let Janesville Gazette Want Ads find me capital with which to promote it.

SHOT WOMAN; TELLS POLICE

Pittsburg, Kan.—An elderly man walked into the police station late yesterday. "I've killed a woman," he told police officers. Investigation proved that the man, Sam Dearing, 58, had told the truth. He found Mrs. Ethel Large, 50, housekeeper in a rooming house, dead, where Dearing had shot her. Dearing said he and Mrs. Large had a love affair and quarreled.

Hughes when the latter was on the supreme court bench but received not the slightest authority to go out and try to get the people to elect him on his own responsibility and came to the Chicago convention with a nucleus of delegates for Hughes.

The campaign has begun. Frank Hittcheck's entry into the lists means that the competition for delegates will be keen and what the politicians want to describe as a "rough and tumble fight with bare knuckles."

Island Freedom When Possible, Coolidge Idea
Washington.—President Coolidge's position on the Philippine independence question is based on a belief that the United States should withdraw from the islands as soon as it considers the people to be capable of self government. To this end the president feels excellent progress is being made.

Main Strength in South
Mr. Hittcheck has a way of bringing contesting delegations to the conventions. His main source of strength is in the south, though he has many friends in different parts of the country. Those who have worked with him from the days when he dispensed offices in the postoffice department, many former Hittcheck officeholders, those who would like to have jobs held by others and who are taking an active part in local politics. He knows how to play on the string of local factional discontent and make the most of his opportunities.

The only question which arises is how much Mr. Hittcheck can do in the south where there are today fewer delegates than before due to the reapportionment. In the states of South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, for instance, there are only about 17 delegates in all as contrasted with 51 in the "good old days."

His Difficult Task
Similarly the presidential primary has entered into the situation in many states and the piling up of delegates to go against primary voters is an opportunity. In the states of South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, for instance, there are only about 17 delegates in all as contrasted with 51 in the "good old days."

Mr. Hittcheck has the premises of the past, but have been effective in the past. The White House strategists have jobs already to give. Witness, for instance, the situation in South Carolina where the republican leaders, who naturally control delegations, have recently been satisfied by the graceful disposition of the right kind of patronage. Mr. Hittcheck is anticipated there in holding the delegates for Coolidge. The situation in Georgia is in process of being ironed out.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema, right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and apply it to the affected area.
